THE SPRINGS

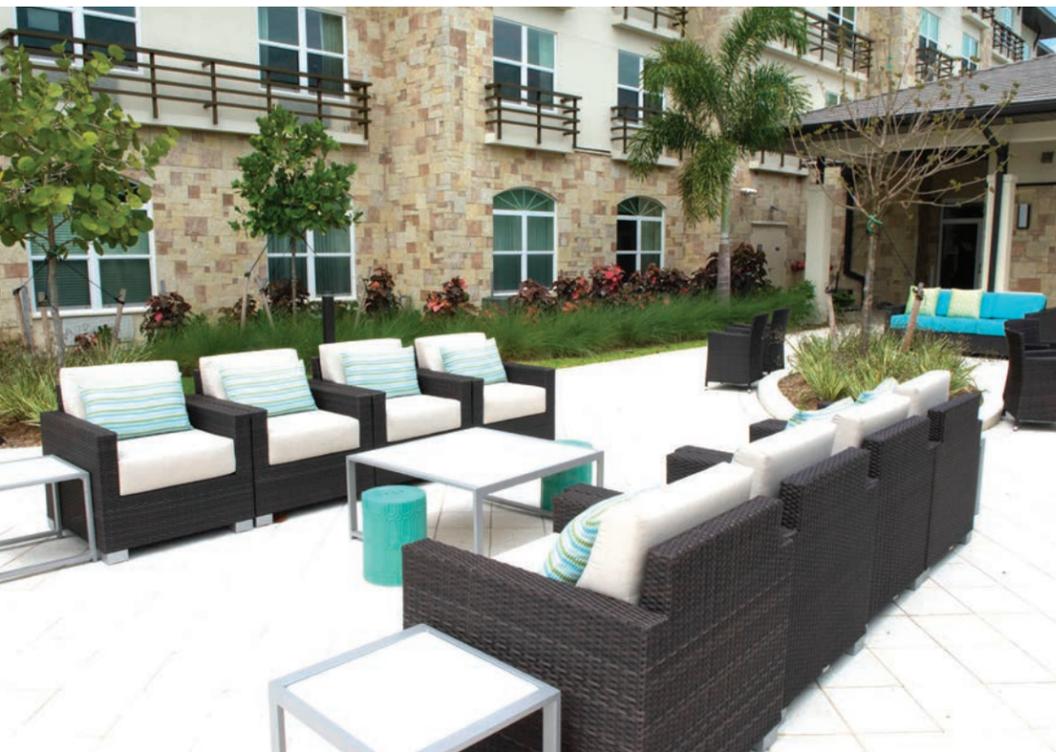

Welcome to The Springs at Shell Point

The Springs offers an elegant setting for individuals who enjoy their independence, but also appreciate the services available at their fingertips.

Everyone wants to remain healthy and active during their retirement years; however, as we grow older, we sometimes need the help of others to maintain our daily routine. The Springs is located in the Waterside neighborhood with all of the benefits and beautiful surroundings the community provides. Sparkling lakes, walking trails, fragrant gardens, recreation space, a swimming pool and much more add to the ambiance of this state-of-the-art facility.

The Springs residents enjoy their own private apartment outfitted with personal furnishings and treasured family mementos. A special painting, a favorite chair — each resident creates their own unique residence — a place they can truly call home. Residents will enjoy a wide variety of services and features to enhance their daily living and provide the highest level of independence their health will allow. The Springs sets a high standard for assisted living in Southwest Florida.

Your new lifestyle begins the moment you enter the building.

An intimate lounge serves as the focal point and creates a comfortable gathering place for residents, their family and friends.

Delicious Dining

The first floor of The Springs features an elegant dining room where meals are served, three times a day, seven days a week. Residents and their guests enjoy restaurant-style dining service and select their meals from daily menus.

The Springs residents may choose to reserve the private dining room for a special gathering of friends or family. Special functions, parties and holiday meals are planned regularly throughout the year.

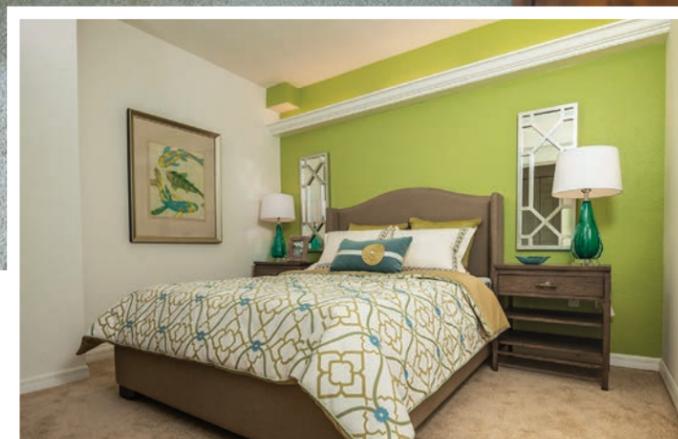

The Springs amenities include spacious lounges, abundant recreation spaces which include an arts and crafts room, library, billiards and a multi-purpose room. Professional recreational leaders plan events that range from projects designed for lifelong learning to social functions created for developing new friendships. Living rooms and lounge areas located throughout The Springs serve as comfortable common spaces.

The media room on the fourth floor is a popular place to take in a movie. The common living spaces are comfortable and inviting, many with beautiful views of the surrounding grounds.
